BOSTON ART CLUB

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I

OBJECTS OF THE CLUB

Objects of the Club

The objects of the Club shall be to advance the knowledge and love of the fine arts through the exhibition of works of art the acquisition of books and papers for the purpose of forming an art and general library, and by other kindred means; to promote social intercourse among and to afford the conveniences of a Club-house to its members.

ARTICLE II

GOVERNMENT

SECTION 1. The government of the Club shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, a Secretary and twelve Directors.

Executive Committee

The said officers shall together constitute the Executive Committee of the Club and at least four of them shall be professional artists.

Professional Artist defined

By "professional artist" is meant a painter, sculptor, architect, musician, artist illustrator or artist engraver, who follows his profession as his principal occupation in life.

Election of Officers

All said officers except the Directors shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the Club, which shall be on the second Saturday in April.

Election of Directors

SEC. 2. At the annual meeting in 1909 twelve Directors shall be elected, four for a term of one year, four for a term of two years, and four for a term of three years; and annually thereafter four Directors shall be elected for a term of three years.

Tenure of Office

All the above-mentioned officers shall be elected by ballot, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected and have accepted office or until they are removed by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting at a meeting of the Club called for the purpose.

Vacancies

SEC. 3. A vacancy in any of said offices may be filled temporarily by the Executive Committee by the election of a member to hold office until the next ensuing annual meeting of the Club. At such annual meeting members shall be elected by ballot to fill all such vacancies.

ARTICLE III

Membership

SECTION 1. The membership of the Club shall consist of Resident, Non-Resident, Junior, Artist, Honorary, Life, and Associate Artist members.

Limit of Membership

SEC. 2. The number of resident members shall be limited to two hundred seventy-five, but this limit may be changed at any time by a vote of a majority of the members of the Executive Committee. The number of Junior members shall be limited to two hundred fifty. The number of artist, non-resident and honorary members shall be unlimited.

ARTICLE IV

AMENDMENTS

Amendments

Any section of the Constitution or By-laws may be amended or repealed at any meeting of the Club by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting. Printed notice of the general nature of such amendment or repeal shall be mailed to each member of the Club and posted on the bulletin board in the Club-house seven days at least before such meeting.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

PRESIDENT

Presiding Officer

SECTION 1. The President shall exercise the usual functions of a presiding officer at all meetings of the Club and of the Executive Committee, and in his absence one of the Vice-Presidents shall act for him.

President pro Tempore

SEC. 2. If the President and Vice-Presidents shall all be absent from any meeting, the members present shall choose a presiding officer.

To sign Contracts

SEC. 3. The President shall, with the Treasurer, sign all written contracts and obligations unless otherwise provided by special vote of the Executive Committee or of the Club.

TREASURER

Duties of the Treasurer

SECTION 1. The Treasurer shall collect and under the direction of the Executive Committee disburse all the funds of the Club. His accounts shall be kept in books belonging to the Club, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of the Executive Committee and the Auditing Committee.

To sign Contracts

Sec. 2. He and the President shall sign all written contracts and obligations unless otherwise provided by special vote of the Executive Committee or of the Club.

Reports

Sec. 3. He shall report in writing at each monthly meeting of the Executive Committee the balance of money on hand and the outstanding obligations of the Club as far as practicable; and he shall make a full report at the annual meeting of the Club of the receipts and disbursements of the past year, with such suggestions as to the financial management of the Club as he may deem proper.

Insurance

Sec. 4. He shall cause insurance to be effected, in the name of the Club, on the house, furniture, fixtures and other property belonging to the Club, and shall also cause insurance to be effected, in the name of the Club, for the benefit of whom it may concern, on such works of art and other property as may be loaned to it, unless the owner of such work of art or other property, loaned or left with the Club, shall execute and file with the Treasurer, an instrument, approved in form by the Executive Committee, releasing the Club from all liability in the premises.

Treasurer pro Tempore

SEC. 5. In case of his absence the Executive Committee may designate one of its members to act as Treasurer pro tempore.

Exempt from Annual Dues

SEC. 6. He shall be exempt from the payment of the annual dues and may be allowed by the Executive Committee a reasonable sum for clerical assistance to keep the accounts and books of his department and for such other clerical work and assistance as the Treasurer may require, such employees to be under the sole control and direction of the Treasurer.

Payment of Indebtedness

SEC. 7. On the first day of each month or as soon thereafter as may be practicable the Treasurer shall cause a notice to be sent to each member of the amount of his indebtedness other than annual dues. If any member so notified, whose account is five dollars or over, fails to pay his indebtedness on or before the fifteenth day of the month, the name of the member, together with the amount of his indebtedness, shall be posted on the bulletin board in the Club-house. If such indebtedness shall not be paid in full on or before the first day of the succeeding month the member shall be refused credit until his posted indebtedness be discharged in full, and notice shall be sent to him to that effect. Should he fail to discharge his posted indebtedness in full on or before forty-five days after the date of his original bill, he shall be suspended from all rights and privileges of membership, including that of entering the Club-house, until his indebtedness be discharged in full. Should he not discharge his indebtedness in full on or before the expiration of two months from the date of the original bill, he shall cease to be a member of the Club, but the Executive Committee, for good reason and acting within its discretion, may by a vote of not less than two-thirds of its members, continue such suspension for an additional period, but not to exceed four months in total.

Penalty for Non-payment of Indebtedness

When a member has become indebted to the Club at any time in the sum of forty dollars or more, exclusive of annual assessments, notice shall be sent to him as soon as practicable thereafter of that fact and that his credit will be stopped when the amount of his indebtedness reaches the sum of fifty dollars.

Notice of Limit of Indebtedness

When the indebtedness of any member of the Club exclusive of annual dues, shall reach the sum of fifty dollars, his credit shall be stopped until his indebtedness is paid in full, and notice of that fact and of the amount due shall be mailed to him, and thereafter the rule as hereinbefore provided in this Section, shall apply to such member.

Reinstatement of Member

The Executive Committee, however, on application made in writing thereafter, may reinstate a member whose membership has ceased under this Section providing the entire indebtedness of such former member shall have been paid in full. Until such reinstatement, all interest and title of such member in and to the property and assets of the Club shall be vested in the Club.

SECRETARY

Secretary

SECTION 1. The Secretary shall record the proceedings of all meetings of the Club, of the Executive Committee and of the Committee on Admissions, conduct the correspondence of the Club and have the custody of the seal, records and papers relating to the business of the Club.

SEC. 2. He shall issue and post all notices and shall call special meetings of the Club whenever requested to do so by the President or fifteen members; and of the Executive Committee upon the request of the President or of three members thereof.

Notices of Special Meetings of Club and Executive Committee

SEC. 3. He shall post upon the bulletin board in the Club-house the names of new members as elected and a complete list of the officers and members of the committees of the Club, and shall correct such list as changes occur.

SECTION 1. A visitor is a person not a member of the Club having a usual place of residence, business or study in Boston or within thirty miles thereof.

Definition of Visitor

A stranger is a person not a member of the Club residing more than thirty miles from Boston.

Stranger

SEC. 2. A visitor may be admitted to the Club-house once in thirty days, but not oftener, and a member inviting him shall ascertain whether he has been introduced during the previous thirty days. A visitor must be accompanied by a member who, immediately upon his entrance in the Club-house, shall register the name and residence of such visitor and date of introduction in a book kept for that purpose, and affix his own name.

Admission of Visitor

Admission of Stranger

SEC. 3. A stranger may, on the request of a member, receive from the Executive Committee, a written invitation entitling him to all the privileges of the Club-house for two weeks. The name of such stranger shall also be registered in the strangers' book. The same person shall not again be introduced as a stranger for three months after the date of his prior introduction, but he may be admitted as a visitor once in thirty days according to the rules prescribed for visitors.

Responsibility of Member

SEC. 4. Members introducing visitors and strangers are responsible for them.

Penalty for violation of Club Law or for Improper Conduct

SEC. 5. Any visitor, stranger or guest guilty of any violation of the Constitution or By-laws, or of any improper conduct not in violation of the Constitution or By-laws, or whose presence is, in the opinion of the Executive Committee, prejudicial to the welfare of the Club, may be excluded from the Club-house.

Extended privileges to Guests

SEC. 6. The Executive Committee, exercising its discretion, may grant the privileges of the Club to guests, beyond the herein prescribed limitations.

ARTICLE XXIII

PROPERTY

Property

SECTION 1. The property of the Club or any property intrusted to it shall not be taken from the Club-house except under the authority of the House Committee.

Payment for Injury

SEC. 2. Any destruction of or injury to the property of the Club or of any articles or works of art which may be intrusted to it shall be paid for by the member who shall have caused it; and the amount to be paid by each member shall be the cost of replacing or repairing the property so destroyed or injured, the same to be certified by the President and countersigned by the Treasurer, but the Executive Committee shall have authority to remit this penalty at its discretion.

SEC. 3. The Club shall not assume responsibility for loss or damage to property of members, left at or about the Club House.

ARTICLE XXIV

Decision of Executive Committee controls

In respect to all questions of the construction of the Constitution or By-laws, the decision of the Executive Committee shall control and be binding, subject to an appeal to the Club.

ARTICLE XXV

Army and Navy

Any officer of the Army and Navy of the United States and Allied Services such as the Marine Corps, Philippine Constabulary and Philippine Scouts may be admitted to the uses of the Club in the manner provided for the election of members upon payment of one-quarter of the annual dues for resident members, which will entitle him to the privileges of the Club for three months, and on application in writing to the Executive Committee such privilege may be extended for further periods of three months each on payment of the one quarter of the amount of annual dues of resident members for each period.

HOUSE RULES

ADOPTED BY THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

BOSTON ART CLUB, September 1, 1916.

1. The Club-house shall be opened at 7 o'clock a.m., and shall be closed on week-days at midnight and on Sundays at 11 o'clock p. m. Members shall not be admitted to the Club-house after midnight, except for the purpose of reaching their rooms. The dining-rooms shall be open from 7.30 o'clock a. m. until 8 o'clock p. m., daily.

2. The tariff and regulations for the use of bed-rooms, the billiard-rooms, and card-rooms, shall be, by force of Section 1 of Article VIII of the By-laws, under the control of the House-Committee. No game shall be played in the Club-house on Sundays, and all manner of betting and play for stakes within the Club's precinct is forbidden.

3. Newspapers, magazines, or other articles the property of the Club shall not be taken from the Club-house or marked, cut, or otherwise injured.

Newspapers and magazines shall not be taken from the social floor of the Club-house.

By signing a card at the office a member occupying a room in the Club-house may take a book of fiction to his room, but no book so taken shall be retained for a longer period than twenty-four hours, and upon its return to the office the card shall be cancelled.

By signing a card at the office a member may take a book from the Art Library for a period not exceeding two weeks, and upon its return to the office the card shall be cancelled.

4. Petitions, notices, subscription papers, or advertisements, shall not be placed or circulated in the Club-house except by permission of the House Committee.

No person shall date or address from the Club any circular or communication intended to appear in any pamphlet, newspaper, periodical, or other publication.

5. Any damage to the property of the Club shall be paid for by the member who may have caused the same, the amount to be so paid to be certified as directed by Section 2 of Article XXIII of the By-laws.

6. Pipe-smoking is prohibited in the library, the dining rooms and strangers' room. No person shall smoke a pipe while in actual play at a billiard or pool table, nor shall a lighted cigar, cigarette, or pipe, be placed thereon.

7. Dogs shall not be allowed in the Club-house.

8. For the convenience of members a coat-room is furnished, in charge of an attendant, for hats, overcoats, bags, umbrellas, canes, and packages, and these articles must not be deposited elsewhere in the Club-house.

9. The Club will not be responsible for articles left in bedrooms or elsewhere in or about the Club-house. Bags and packages to remain for any length of time will have additional protection if member will request locker check.

10. No member or visitor shall, under any pretence whatever, give any money or gratuity to any person employed in the Club, and such person shall not be employed by any member on any business of his own out of the Club-house. Upon application at the office, messengers will be furnished, for which a proper charge will be made.

11. All complaints and suggestions must be made in writing addressed to the House Committee and signed by the member.

12. Nothing shall be served from the restaurant outside of the dining-rooms, excepting tea, coffee, sandwiches, and such articles of food and drink as the House Committee may from time to time permit. Breakfasts, however, may be served in bedrooms at an extra charge for service. Private dinners may be served in the Club-house to members and their guests under the control and at the discretion of the House Committee.

Orders for articles served from the kitchen, buffet, or any other place, must be signed by the member so ordering, or with the name of the person so ordering, and that of the member responsible for such person. A member desiring to pay cash may do so by writing "Cash" on his order check and paying the same at the office on the day of its date. "Cash" checks not so paid will be charged to the member's account.

13. Private dining-rooms shall not be assigned to parties numbering less than three persons, and the House Committee may, at its discretion, refuse applications for private dining-rooms.

14. Without permission from the House Committee a member may not engage a room for more than two weeks, or re-engage a room or engage any other room until his term of occupancy shall have expired. Applications for rooms shall be made at the office and considered in order as received. A member's right to a room is not transferable. Strangers entitled to the privileges of the Club may occupy bedrooms, but no member shall be privileged to extend the use of a bedroom to more than one stranger at a time, except by special permission of the House Committee. Notice of intention to vacate a room must be given at the office before 4 o'clock in the afternoon, or the room will be charged to the occupant for that day. Bedrooms and bath-rooms, either together or separately may be let by the hour for toilet purposes at rates to be fixed by the House Committee.

15. Minors accompanying persons who have the right of admission may be admitted to the privileges of the dining-rooms of the Club only.

16. Members unaccompanied by ladies shall enter and leave the Club-house by the Newbury Street entrance.

17. Upon the written application of a member the House Committee will issue a card admitting ladies of the immediate family of such member to the use and privileges of the Ladies' Department. For the purpose aforesaid a special blank, to be obtained at the office shall be used. The House Committee, within its discretion, will issue like cards of admission to ladies who may not be of a member's immediate family. Any card issued under this rule may at any time be recalled and cancelled by said Committee.

A member shall be responsible for any and all indebtedness contracted by the holder of a card of admission issued upon his application, the same to be charged to his account.

18. The Ladies' Department shall be open when and as the House Committee may from time to time direct, and ladies accompanied by a member shall be admitted thereto. A lady holding a card of admission shall be entitled to the use and privileges of said department. She may be accompanied by a lady or ladies not holding such cards. She shall, when not accompanied by a member, enter in a book kept for such purpose her own name, the name of the member appearing on her card, and the name or names of any guest or guests accompanying her. All order checks shall be signed by the holder of such card with her own name and that of the member who applied for the same. No gentleman guest under this rule shall be introduced oftener than once in thirty days, and the holder of a card of admission shall ascertain whether such intended guest has been introduced during the previous thirty days.

19. No refreshments of any kind shall be served in the Ladies' Reception Room, or to a member in any part of the Ladies' Department unless accompanied by a lady.

20. Ladies shall be admitted to the Clubhouse by the Dartmouth Street entrance, and they shall not be admitted to any part of the Club-house other than the Ladies' Department, except as permitted by the House Committee.

21. Upon receipt of news of the death of a member of the Club, the Club flag shall be placed at half staff until after the funeral. In case the news of the death is not received until after the funeral, the flag shall be so displayed for one day.

22. These Rules can be amended only by a vote of the Executive Committee.

Amendments to Rules posted on the Bulletin Board of the Club will become operative when posted.
